FOO

THE FLAGSHIP OUTLET

The image shows the interior of the FOO Palladium restaurant. The space is characterized by its bold design, featuring large, arched doorways with thick blue frames. The walls are a light, textured grey. In the foreground, there are several tables with modern, upholstered chairs in shades of grey and red. A large potted plant with long, thin leaves sits on a table. In the background, a bar area is visible through one of the arches, with shelves stocked with various bottles. A framed artwork of a man in a mask is mounted on the wall between the arches.

FOO Palladium opened its doors in 2018 — a bold first step and a clear signal of intent.

Placed in the heart of Mumbai's luxury district, this is where the FOO blueprint was set: immersive design, fearless flavours, and a dining experience that shifts gears from laid-back lunches to high-energy nights without missing a beat.
